PRECIOUS PILGRIM MINISTRIES

Welcome, JESUS!

Dear Children,

I recently got a letter from one of you. You asked me "What is faith?" Some people devote their whole life to this one word. Books have been written about faith and some schools teach classes about it. I am a mom, wife, grocery store shopper, mountain walker, and a library card holder, and my definition of faith may be different than yours but I believe God accepts us all with all our definitions, regardless of who we are, how much we know or don't know.

This is what I find faith to be for me.

Faith is letting a donkey carry the hope of the world.

Faith is saying yes to what is right, even if it means being rejected by everyone else.

Faith is dancing when there is no music.

Faith is following a star, even when you are scared.

Faith is seeing what someone can become, not just who they are.

Faith is finding a way to help the poor, by seeing their richness.

Welcome, JESUS!

Welcome, JESUS!

Faith is being a manger to the most unlikely guests.

Faith is not knowing anyone in the 3rd grade class but bringing enough snack for two.

Faith is a new box of crayons and tablet of paper.

Faith is building boats for rivers and lakes during a drought.

Faith is learning a Bible verse, a beautiful poem, a new song!

Faith is a new born Kitten and packing sunglasses on a rainy day.

Faith is Christmas eve at a nativity pageant with faces from everywhere.

God Bless Dear Children.

You are faith.

Love,

Mrs RaRa
